Weather

Seville enjoys a Mediterranean climate and is one of the warmest cities in Europe. During the summers temperatures are normally in the 90's, whilst in the hottest months of July and August temperatures will quite often reach 100°F. The summer months tend to be dry with little or no rainfall.

The winters are mild, with the temperature rarely dropping below freezing. December and January are usually the coldest months of the year, and the rainy season tends to be from roughly the beginning of October through December.

It is important to note that whilst most of the year temperatures are very pleasant, the houses in Seville are made to keep the heat out instead of in due to the high summer temperatures. Because of this, between the months of October and March it can often feel colder inside than out, so don't forget slippers and warm clothes!

Below is a table of average temperatures for each month. In Spain, temperatures are expressed in degrees Celsius (shown in brackets in this table to give you an idea of the conversion rate).

	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	Jun	Jul	Aug	Sep	Oct	Nov	Dec

Transport

All SAIIE accommodation is within a 30 minute distance from the school and easily accessible from to the city center. The good thing about Seville is that almost all of the tourist sites are reachable by foot. In the hot summer months the city government stretches toldos, or tarps, across the buildings in the center so many of the streets always have shade - a great way to keep the main shopping and restaurant areas of the center cool.

For getting to places slightly further outside the center, there are numerous options, including the city's bus system, trains, the metro and the Sevici bikes.

Buses

The buses in Seville are very efficient and easy to use, and air-conditioned during the summer months. A one-way ticket costs €1.40 to get anywhere in the city, or you can buy a tarjeta multiviaje (rechargeable bus card) which costs €1.50, with a minimum top-up of €7. You can choose this card to be con transbordo (with transfer) or sin transbordo (without transfer). Trips with transfer cost €0.76 and without transfer €0.69. Transfers must be made within 1 hour.

For buses to and from the airport there is the EA (Especial Aeropuerto) bus which costs €4 one way or €6 for a round trip within the same day. From the bus stations of Prado de San Sebastian and Plaza de Armas you can also take buses to many of the major cities in Spain for a good price. Below is the information for these two bus stations:

Trains

Seville's Santa Justa train station is a 15-20 minute walk from the centre of the city and from here you can catch trains to many other Spanish towns and cities. Madrid is only a two and a half hour ride away on the AVE (high-speed train).

Sevici Bikes

Seville is a very flat city and so makes for pleasant and easy biking. The Sevici system is also very useful and the abundance of bike lanes in the city has made cycling a popular option for getting around. A long-term Sevici bike pass costs €33.33 and lasts for a year. With this pass you can ride one of the Sevici bikes for 30 minutes at no extra cost. For the first hour after the free 30 minutes it will cost €0.51 and then for each hour after this it will cost you €1.03. For more information and to subscribe please visit www.sevici.es.

Churches

Seville, like all of Spain, is predominately Roman Catholic but other faiths are also practiced and when you arrive in Seville one of the first things you will notice walking around the city is the number of Catholic churches here. Despite this, there are also numerous non-Catholic churches and places to practice other religions.
